

Cookies Policy

Use of cookies by Investment Academy B.V.

Dutch hospitality is a cookie with your coffee or tea. Digital hospitality is a cookie for a website visit. A cookie is a small amount of data ,i.e. small text files, sent to your computer by a website. The website tells the web browser you are using (e.g. Internet Explorer, Google Chrome, Apple Safari or Mozilla Firefox) to store these cookies on your computer. There are two types of cookies. Session cookies are deleted from your computer when you close your web browser. Persistent cookies remain stored on your computer even after your web browser is closed. We, or other parties, place these cookies on your computer or mobile device for a very specific reason. For example, in your next visit, we are able to read your preferences or login details in the text file. This means that you do not have to indicate your preferences again and we can make the website more user-friendly. Under the heading "Overview Cookies" you will see which cookies we place and what they are used for.

Investment Academy B.V. uses cookies to make navigating the website easier, to analyse the use of the website and so improve the quality of the website. Session cookies are also used in this process. Investment Academy B.V. uses cookies to collect information about its customers for the purposes of targeted communication, including the provision of service information about our products and targeted marketing of products and services provided by Investment Academy B.V., its group companies and, in some cases, third parties carefully selected by us.

Your user name may also be stored in a cookie if you are logged on to a Investment Academy B.V. website. On some Investment Academy B.V. websites, your e-mail address is the user name, on others Investment Academy B.V. uses a random generator to create a username for you. Investment Academy B.V. also give access to websites that contain advertisements also use cookies. These keep track of what advertisements you have already seen. These cookies are produced by the company responsible for the advertisement, not by Investment Academy B.V.

Refusing cookies

Any user can refuse cookies by adjusting their browser settings to disable all or certain cookies (see your web browser manual or help function). If you disable cookies, some services may not be available to you.

Note: If you do not consent to placing cookies, we cannot guarantee that our website or any part thereof works properly.

Overview cookies:

Functional necessary cookies
